

Board Charter and Role of Management

1. Policy Introduction

It is the aim of Beach to meet the corporate governance requirements recommended by the ASX, with a framework designed to:

- Enable the Board to provide strategic guidance for Beach and effective oversight of management;
- Clarify the respective roles and responsibilities of Board members and senior executives in order to facilitate Board and senior executives accountability to both Beach and its shareholders; and
- Ensure a balance of authority so that no single individual has unfettered powers.

2. Role of the Board and its Membership

The Board is responsible for corporate governance of Beach. It oversees the business and affairs of Beach, establishes the strategies and financial objectives to be implemented by management and monitors standards of performance. Those responsibilities and the powers reserved to it are set out below in detail.

The membership of the Board will be directed by the following requirements:

- The constitution of Beach specifies that there must be at least three directors and no more than nine. The Board may determine the size of the Board within those limits.
- The Board must consist of a majority of independent directors who satisfy the criteria for independence adopted by the Board.
- The Chairman of the Board must be an independent director who satisfies the criteria for independence adopted by the Board.
- The Board should, collectively, have the appropriate level of personal qualities, skills, experience and time commitment to properly fulfil its responsibilities or have ready access to such skills where they are not available.

The Board may establish committees to assist it in carrying out its responsibilities. The Board will adopt charters setting out the membership, administration, purpose, responsibilities and functions appropriate to that committee.

2.1. Role of the Chairman

In addition to his or her role as a director, the role of the Chairman includes:

- Ensuring the Board provides leadership and vision to Beach;
- In conjunction with the Company Secretary, preparing the Board agenda;
- Leading the Board, including presiding over Board meetings and company meetings and directing Board discussions to effectively use the time available to address the critical issues facing Beach;
- Ensuring Board minutes properly reflect Board decisions;
- Developing an ongoing relationship with the Chief Executive Officer, such that the Chairman is kept fully informed of the day-to-day matters of interest to the Board;
- Acting as a mentor for the Chief Executive Officer;

- Facilitating the effective contribution of directors including the commencement of the annual process of Board and director performance evaluation;
- Promoting constructive and respectful relations between Board members and between Board and senior executives;
- Together with the Board facilitating the assessment of the Chief Executive Officer's performance; and
- Guiding the ongoing effectiveness and development of the Board and individual directors.

2.2. Role of the Chief Executive Officer

The Chief Executive Officer is responsible to the Board for the overall management and performance of Beach. The Chief Executive Officer should manage Beach in accordance with the strategy, plans, practices and policies approved by the Board to achieve the agreed objectives. In particular the Chief Executive Officer's responsibilities include:

- Being the conduit through which the Board is provided sufficient and relevant information to act effectively;
- Providing leadership to Beach and acting as Beach's interface with its operating environment and the general business and investment community;
- Taking action to implement Beach's corporate strategy, including being active in identifying new initiatives for consideration;
- Ensuring Beach's policies are complied with;
- Referring all matters outside of the Chief Executive Officer's delegation to the Board for approval; and
- Such other responsibilities as delegated by the Board from time to time.

All directors will have access to the Chief Executive Officer.

2.3. Role of Individual Directors

The role of directors includes:

- Contributing to Board activities to the best of their abilities and with the level of skill and care expected;
- Discharging their duties in good faith and honestly in the best interests of Beach;
- Using the powers of office for proper purpose, in the best interests of Beach as a whole;
- Acting with the required care and diligence, demonstrating commercial reasonableness in their decisions;
- Avoiding conflicts of interest, not allowing personal interests, or the interests of any associated person, to conflict with the interests of Beach;
- Not making improper use of information gained through their position of director;
- Making reasonable enquiries to ensure that Beach is operating effectively, efficiently and legally toward achieving its objectives;
- Undertaking diligent analysis of all proposals placed before the Board;
- Serving on Board committees as required;
- Participating in the appointment of new directors and directors performance evaluation; and

- Acting in accordance with the duties and obligations imposed on them and the Board by the constitution and the law.

2.4. Role of the Deputy Chairman

From time to time the Board may nominate one of its directors to be a Deputy Chairman whose role is:

- To aid and assist the Chairman and to assume the role of the chairman if the Chairman is unavailable;
- To aid and assist the Chairman and the remainder of the Board in assuring effective corporate governance in managing the affairs of the Board and the company;
- To be available as a resource to consult with the Chairman and other directors on corporate governance practices and policies, and shall assume the primary leadership role in addressing issues of this nature if the Chairman is unavailable;
- If the Chairman is unavailable to consider questions of possible conflicts of interest of or breaches of the Code of Conduct by Board members, as such questions arise; and
- For succession planning, to assist the Board in selecting a new Chairman.

2.5. Role of the Company Secretary

The Company Secretary is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.

The Company Secretary is generally responsible for carrying out the administrative and statutory requirements of the Board by:

- Coordinating the development of the agenda in a timely and effective manner for approval by the Chairman;
- Ensuring, in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer, that the board papers are prepared in a timely and effective manner;
- Ensuring the timely despatch of the agenda and board papers;
- Coordinating, organising and attending meetings of the Board and shareholders, and ensuring the correct procedures are followed;
- Ensuring that the business at board and committee and members meetings is accurately captured in the minutes;
- Working in conjunction with the Chief Executive Officer and senior executives, to carry out the instructions of the Board and giving practical effect to the Board's decisions;
- Advising the Board and its committees on governance matters;
- Monitoring that Board and committee policy and procedures are followed; and
- Helping to organise and facilitate the induction and professional development of directors.

All directors will have access to the Company Secretary.

3. Responsibilities of the Board

The full range of the Board's responsibilities is extensive and in addition to the matters required by law, includes the following:

Performance

- Ensuring Beach's long term viability and enhancing its financial position;

- Provide accurate, timely and clear information to the Board to enable the Board to effectively perform its responsibilities;
- Act as a conduit between the Board and Beach; and
- Manage Beach's human, physical and financial resources to achieve Beach's objectives – essentially "RUN THE BUSINESS".

5. Assistance to Board to fulfill Roles and Responsibilities

Board members will be assisted by Beach to fulfill their roles and responsibilities in ways which include:

- The provision of induction materials for new directors in order to gain an understanding of Beach's financial, strategic, operational and risk position, their rights, duties and responsibilities, the roles and responsibility of senior management and the role of Board committees;
- The offer by Beach of an indemnity under the terms of Beach's constitution; and
- Professional development opportunities to update and enhance their skills and knowledge. This includes education concerning key developments in Beach and in the industry and environment within which Beach operates.

6. Conduct of Board Meetings

Board meetings will be conducted in accordance with the constitution.

A Chairman will be appointed in accordance with the constitution.

The constitution provides that the quorum for a meeting is one half of the directors for the time being appointed.

Board meetings will be held at least eight times a year at venues, dates and times agreed, where practical, in advance.

In the ordinary course, Board and committee papers will be provided to directors at least three clear business days before the meeting, unless the meeting has been called urgently.

The agenda for each Board meeting will be approved by the Chairman of the meeting and where relevant, developed in consultation with the Chief Executive Officer, through the Company Secretary.

Board and committee papers will contain sufficient and relevant information to enable directors to efficiently discharge their responsibilities and to make informed decisions on each of the agenda items for consideration.

The minutes of Board meetings will be circulated, approved and signed in accordance with the Board Minutes procedure adopted by the Board.

7. Review

The Board will review this charter at least once a year.
